The musical score is written for a piano and includes a vocal line. The tempo is marked "Andante sostenuto" and the expression is "espressivo". The piano part begins with a p (piano) dynamic. The score is divided into four systems. The first system shows the vocal line and the beginning of the piano accompaniment. The piano part features a series of chords and moving lines in both hands. The second system continues the piano accompaniment with more complex chordal textures. The third system shows the vocal line re-entering with a melodic line, while the piano accompaniment provides harmonic support. The fourth system, marked with a Roman numeral "II", shows the vocal line and piano accompaniment concluding the page. The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, key signatures (one sharp), time signatures, and dynamic markings. There are also performance instructions like "espressivo" and "p". The notation includes notes, rests, slurs, and fingerings.

First system of musical notation. The treble clef staff contains a melody with a fermata over the first measure and a trill in the fourth measure. The piano accompaniment in the grand staff features chords and moving lines. Dynamics include p (piano) and ff (fortissimo).

Second system of musical notation. The treble clef staff begins with a ff appassionato marking and includes a trill and a section marked IV. The piano accompaniment features complex chordal textures and triplets. Dynamics include ff, p, and pp.

Più mosso e agitato

Third system of musical notation, marked Più mosso e agitato. The treble clef staff begins with a p espressivo marking. The piano accompaniment is highly rhythmic. Dynamics include p and pp.

Fourth system of musical notation. The piano accompaniment continues with a steady eighth-note pattern in the bass and chords in the treble. Dynamics include pp.
